

DOWNLOAD
LAUNCH YOUR CLASSROOM!
EBOOKS FOR FREE!

APRIL 7TH

TEACHWITHTHEPI.COM/PROFESSIONAL-DEVELOPMENT

APRIL 7TH

Fostering Student-Centered Communication

Student-centered communication can enhance student confidence, develop critical thinking skills, and contribute to a greater sense of classroom community. Join Kyle and the Launch Your Classroom! team as they explore a variety of methods to increase the quantity and quality of student-centered communication in your classroom!

Free Book Download Day!

APRIL 14TH

Classroom Strategy: Expectations for Student Presentations

Students need plenty of opportunities to practice both public speaking and listening skills. In this video, Rachel explains why setting clear and consistent expectations for student presentations is important for creating a classroom environment that fosters both academic and social-emotional learning.

APRIL 21ST

Ask an Educator: Fostering Student-Centered Communication

Why are more and more schools focusing on student-centered communication in their classes? Join Johnny and Rachel as they discuss how bringing student-centered communication to your classroom can help students foster both academic and life skills.

APRIL 28TH

Teacher Wellness Tips: Self-Advocacy for Communication

As teachers, we work hard to help students learn to advocate for themselves. Those same skills are important for adults as well! Heather discusses three elements of self-advocacy and how they apply in a professional setting.

NEVER MISS AN EPISODE!

Premiering Every Friday at 4 PM EDT
YouTube.com/EducationalPartnersInternational